TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

OVER 3,000 PEOPLE AT FAIR ON SECOND DAY And Still Greater Gathering is Ex- pected For Friday—K. P. Fair a Big Success

The first two days of the fair, in Stanford this week, conducted by the Knights of Pythias, show that it is going to be an unqualified success. Although the first day weather dampened the ardor of many, no finer fair day could be wished for than Thursday, the second day. Today the indications are that the conditions will be better, if possible, and a tremendous crowd is expected on the third and last day.

The attendance on Thursday ran well over the 3,000 mark, about three times the number present the first day.

The feature in the stock rings of the second day program was the Mule Colt Futurity, which was captured by Bob Woods' great young mare mule, with his brother, Jim Woods' colt second. Some splendid horseflesh was shown during the day. The premium awards were as follows:

"KENTUCKY COLONELS"

Back From Delightful Fishing Trip To High Bridge

The Kentucky Colonels delightful-ly entertained their friends with a week's camping trip on Kentucky river at High Bridge last week. The fishing was bad on account of muddy water but rowing bathing and hill climbing were fine and all joined heartily in the sport.

Several experts in different lines were developed. J. W. Fields proved himself a great fisherman and also a professor in swimming. A. W. Sampson is a genius as a sailing captain. Marion Fields as a marine engineer. R. C. Watkins played the role as hero. Miss Margaret Sampson and F. G. Watkins took the honors as chief cooks. S. L. Stephenson has changed his occupation from store keeper to that of an inventor. He is now engaged in making a camp bed that does not resemble a rock pile. Miss Sue Sampson holds the record as a bug swatter. Music was furnished by Miss Gladys Chamberlain, A. W. and R. N. Sampson in the evenings.

The party was composed of Mrs. W. M. Fields as chaperone; Misses Elizabeth Coppage, Pearl Fields, Gladys Chamberlain, Sue Sampson, of Harrodsburg, Margaret Sampson, of Harrodsburg, Edith Watkins, Grace Fields, Lucile Chamberlain, Ruth Fields, Messrs. J. W. Fields, Marion Fields, A. W. Sampson, R. W. Sampson, F. G. Watkins, R. C. Watkins, S. L. Stephenson, John Cecil, of Harrodsburg.

Brodhead.

Mrs. Linda Benton and John Benton, of Millersburg, were here first of the week.

Misses Clyde and Mattie Wilcott were in Louisville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hilton, Mr. Harry Hilton and daughters, Misses Ethel, John Eva and Ruby Hilton, of Stanford, Thelma Honk, of Indiana, and Stella Griffith of Ford, were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Cass during the fair.

Mrs. Ed Sprinkle and children have returned to their home in Paris after visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Owens are rejoicing over the arrival of new girl.

O. C. Wilcott, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. Walter Miller and children of Lebanon Junction were the guests of their mother, Mrs. M. E. Wilcott, Frank Brooks was down from Harlan to attend the fair. He accompanied back by his grandsons, Louis and Mattie Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lyons and children of Junction City have been with friends here for the past week, and are now in the country for a month.

Miss Grace McColl has been ill. Miss Ella Dunn, of Danville, and Mrs. Joe Lynn Coffey and little son of Frankfort, visited Mrs. J. G. Frith last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Malmkus, of Louisville, are at Francis Hotel for a few days visit.

Joe Carter returned home Sunday after several days' visit in Shelbyville.

Mr. W. H. Farris and children, of East Bernstadt, are with his father, Mr. Ben Farris.

Cleo Wheelon is in Louisville this week.

Dr. C. H. Ellsworth, Dentist, 16 Baldwin St., Rochester, N. Y., says Foley Kidney Pills gave him immediate relief and strengthened him wonderfully. "I have been bothered with weak kidneys and bladder trouble and suffered much pain. Foley Kidney Pills gave me immediate relief and strengthened me wonderfully. I am pleased to recommend their use." Shugars and Tanner.

The United States Senate defeated the bill providing Government aid to public roads.

MISS LISSA HOLTZCLAW

Wins Premium as Prettiest Girl On The Fair Grounds

Miss Lissa Holtzclaw, acknowledged everywhere as one of Lincoln's fairest daughters, was awarded the $10 in gold premium Thursday for being the prettiest girl on the fair grounds here. She was chosen for this honor by unanimous vote of the judges, of whom there were four, and each and every one of them has an eye for beauty, too. The selection of Miss Holtzclaw for this premium was received with enthusiasm, as she was whirled around the fair ring by Secretary J. F. Cummins in his auto, after the award had been made by the judges.

Miss Holtzclaw is one of the most charming and sweet young girls in this part of the state and bore the honors with a modesty of demeanor which is one of her attractions to those who know her.

INDELIBLE PENCIL

Jammed Between Two Ribs, Gives Coe Moser Much Trouble.

Coe Moser, the popular night telegrapher at the L. & N. depot here, is just beginning to feel himself again after an unusual sort of an accident, which came near having serious results for him. He was standing on the platform at the depot a short time ago, when a mail sack was thrown off a mail car. The sack hit him, and struck an indelible pencil which he carried in his shirt pocket. The sharp point of the pencil was driven into his body, penetrating between two ribs and causing a very painful injury. Mr. Moser did not pay much attention to it at first, but the indelible composition of the pencil, contained some poison which threatened death for a time, but his physician managed to arrest its evil effect before the results of the injury became really serious. He was compelled to lay off from duty for several days, as a result of what seemed at first to be a very trifling accident.

Young Miss Embry Winner.

The pony rig driven by little Miss Pearl Embry received the largest vote for the best pony rig in the first ring of the fair Wednesday, and the decision seemed to be a very popular one. Miss Embry had her rig attractively decorated and drove a beautiful pony. Morgan S. Baughman received the second number of highest votes.

Slight showers early Wednesday morning, delayed the formation of the parade by the pony ring contestants to the fair ground. Grella's band stationed on the portico of the court house rendered sweet music in the early morning. The showers ceased before ten o'clock, and the pony parade was formed, and lead by the band to the fair grounds.

Morgan Smith Baughman, drew No. 1 place in the parade with his crack little pony Jesse. Riding with him in his double seated trap were Miss Margaret Shanks, Mr. Heath Severance, and Miss Ida H. Pettus.

Entry No. 2 was driven by George Fleece Farris with a beautiful and well stepping little horse. Hiding with him were Miss Elsie Elizabeth Coleman. This pony is owned by Mr. W. J. Dozier, who bought it from Mrs. Hardin some time ago.

Entry No. 3 was driven by Joe Grimes and Miss Isabelle Givens, of Danville. They also had a little beauty, owned by Mr. Dozier.

Entry No. 4 was that of little Miss Pearl Embry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Embry, Jr., who had with her four of her schoolmates, Misses Annie Lee Eubanks, Frances Tate and Mary Louise Woods. Their rig was beautifully decorated in the K. of P. colors.

Robert W. Herter, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills but with no relief. My strength seemed to come back, and I sleep better. I took three bottles of them, and got a new feeling. I am now all over my trouble and glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills. Try them, boys." Shugars and Tanner.

POULTRY EXHIBIT

CREATES MUCH INTEREST

International Egg Laying Contest Expert Ties the Ribbons—Fine Quality Birds Shown

Lincoln county poultry fanciers turned out in large numbers to see the blue ribbons tied on their favorite breeds the first day of the fair. The association was very fortunate in securing Mr. E. H. Borchers, of Louisville, poultry editor of the Louisville Post, to judge the feathered tribe. Mr. Borchers has personal charge of the International Egg Laying contest, being held under the auspices of the Post at Senator Paynter's farm near the state capital. Mrs. S. J. Embry, Jr., and A. C. Alford, both of whom have pens in the big egg contest, showed some fine birds at the fair. A. C. Hill has a fine string of White Orpingtons that are hard to beat any place in the country. J. C. McClary likewise ranked with the topnotchers, carrying off several blue ribbons.

Mr. Borchers said that the people of Lincoln county should be proud of this fair, and especially of the poultry exhibit. He has been re-engaged for next year's fair and he urges all the poultry breeders in the county to start in now to make this department one of the leading features of the fair. The awards in the various classes were:

Leghorns—1911 and 1912 birds A. C. Alford, both awards.
Black Langshans—Mrs. Eads 1st
Buff Orpingtons—1911 birds Mrs. S. J. Embry, 1st, J. C. McClary 2d. 1912 birds—J. C. McClary 1st; Mrs. A. C. Alford 2d.
Barred Rocks—A. P. Coffey 1st.
White Orpingtons—A. C. Hill 1st on both 1911 and 1912 birds.
Rhode Island Reds—A. C. Hill. 1st on both 1911 and 1912 birds.
Black Orpingtons—Mrs. S. J. Embry, Jr., 1st.
English Salmon Faverolles—Mrs. S. J. Embry, Jr., 1st.
Farm Stock—Mrs. Eads 1st.
Black Orpingtons—Mrs. S. J. Embry 1st, Mrs. Eads 2d on 1911 birds. On 1912 birds, A. C. Hill 1st.
Special premium—English breed: Mrs. S. J. Embry, Jr., 1st; American breed: A. C. Hill 1st; Mediterranean breed: A. C. Alford 1st.
Best display—A. C. Hill 1st; A. C. Alford 2d.

Mrs. J. W. Cocking and pretty daughter Miss Ruth are visiting in Falmouth and Covington the last two weeks.

Miss Ruth and Margaret Beck have returned home from Somerset where they were visiting their sister, Mrs. J. W. Davis, she having returned with them.

Miss Ruth Coffey, of Shelby City is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Coffey this week.

Tom Earles went over to Hazel Patch to load out a couple of cars of lumber for E. R. Spotswood and son, this week.

Protracted meeting began at the Christian church at Turnersville Monday night and will continue for several days; Mr. Mills from Lexington and another gentleman are holding the meeting.

Miss Nettie White of Lexington is the guest of her grandfather, Mr. Reuben Williams this week.

Mr. Harry Jacobs, and wife and daughter Ada, have returned from a ten days' visit to Louisville and Elizabethtown.

Miss Eugene, Nancy Hubble, Miss Marjorie Cocking and father, Tom Earles, W. M. Mobley all took in the excursion to High Bridge.

Mrs. Chas. Beck has returned home from Kewanee, Ill., where she has been visiting her parents for the last fifteen days.

Mrs. W. A. Coffey has returned from Detroit, Mich., where she visited her sister.

Brother Gabhart, pastor of the Christian church is holding a meeting at the Antioch church at Phil this week.

Miss Mary Dee Beck is visiting Miss Florence Carter near McCormack's church this week.

M. H. Singleton has rented the McKinney Coal and Feed Co., building and is now in the market for coal, shipstuffs, etc.

Mrs. Kate Coffey visited her brother, Mr. Dick Goode in Lexington last week.

Quite a number of people from here attended the great K. of P. fair at Stanford this week and report a good fair and a good time.

Miss Rose McCormack and Miss Lottie Cook of Hustonville, were callers in our town on Tuesday afternoon.

D. C. Dyke, framing contractor living at 609 Keeling Court, Canton, Ill., is now well rid of a severe and annoying case of kidney trouble. His back pained and he was bothered with headaches and dizzy spells. "I took Foley Kidney Pills just as directed and in a few days I felt much better. My life and strength seemed to come back, and I sleep better. I am now all over my trouble and glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills. Try them, boys." Shugars and Tanner.

A. S. Jones, of the Lee Pharmacy, Chico, Cal., who has handled Foley & Co.'s medicine for many years, says: "I consider that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has no equal, and is the one cough medicine I can recommend as containing no narcotics or other harmful properties." The genuine is in a yellow package. Shugars and Tanner.

Small Checking Accounts.

No one is denied the conveniences of a checking account with Lincoln County National Bank, because his transactions are small. It is the policy of this bank to encourage the small depositor, because it sees in each one the possibility of the large account of the future. The officers of this bank are accessible to those who call for the transaction of business, and are glad to extend a welcome to new depositors.

Last Cal on Low Shoes

If you live until next summer you will have to have Shoes. If we have what you want now in our shelves, it will be a good investment.

The NETTLETON Low Shoes are $5.00, $6.00 and $6.50 the world over--no less. The few pairs left you can get at $4.00.

WALK-OVERS, the most popular of all Shoes--they speak for themselves. The prices are stamped on each bottom, $3.50, $4 and $4.50 the pair. We have about 50 pairs, in all leathers, at $2.50 for the $3.50 ones; $2.75 for the $4 shoes, and $3. for the $4.50 pairs.

They are all new 1912 models. If that isn't a good investment, then don't buy them; if it is, then get you a pair quick.

Fair Notes

All Knights of Pythias attending the fair Friday are expected to wear the colors of the order.

Charley Cecil, who is boosting the Overland auto like the live wire that he is, was here late Thursday afternoon accompanied by Editor W. Vernon Richardson, of the Danville Advocate, and who will be the Private Secretary to Senator Ollie M. James when the latter takes his seat in the U. S. Senate.

Joe McDowell, of Danville, who handles the string of his sister, Mrs. R. T. Lowndes, came over with two colts, both by the great sire, Kentucky Choice. They are classy little youngsters.

Dick Scudder was getting the glad hand on all sides for the splendid showing his youngsters made in the big Futurities at Lexington. Mr. Scudder's sale of some of his best ones to W. C. Massie, netted him a very handsome profit, and showed the confidence that those who want the winning blood, have in this popular Lincoln horseman.

J. W. Adams, one of the best known farmers and horsemen of Madison, was here the first day. Mr. Adams, by the way, is a very strong democrat and says there's nothing to it but Woodrow Wilson this fall.

Jesse D. Wearen, Pet Beck and George Burdette did good work on the gates the first day. All of the boys have gone to work with a will determined to make the fair a winner.

Mr. George P. Bright, who has been acting as clerk at the famous Crab Orchard Springs during the Summer, came down early Thursday morning to take in the rest of the fair.

W. B. Bullock, formerly night operator at the depot, came up from Lebanon to take in the fair.

Jim Menefee, of course, got home for the fair. He came all the way from Morristown, Tenn.

Wm. Dodd, of the West End, who knows every line of a blue blooded equine, was here Thursday and acted as judge in several rings to the satisfaction of every one.

J. W. Masters was over from McKinney Thursday for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wells and children autoed over Thursday from Danville. Mrs. Wells said she had never enjoyed a country fair as she did this one.

Judge Lewis L. Walker came over with a good crowd from Lancaster Thursday. Among others in the Garrard bunch noted were Postmaster West. W. L. Lawson, John Farrar, J. R. Mount, J. S. Haselden, several of the Robinsons and others.

M. J. Farris, Sr., accompanied by his son, and H. C. Bright was here from Danville and enjoyed the day.

Paul Goddard, who lead the fight for Harvey Helm in Mercer, was here Thursday from Harrodsburg, accompanied by John Buster Robert and Otha Mitchell and Edward Mitchell, a youngster who showed well in a pony ring.

Capt. Alex Tribble, of Junction City, and Danville, was here mixing with his old Confederate comrades. Among them who were here were Russ Denton, Sterling Grimes, George P. Bright and others.

W. B. McRoberts, of Danville, was one of the ex-Lincolns who came back home Thursday and had a delightful day.

Secretary R. L. Elkin, of the Lancaster fair, was on hand Thursday and pronounced this fair a winner.

G. A. Lackey, of Litchfield, Ill., couldn't stay away, but came back home for the fair.

Charley Bohon, of Lebanon, who is making a reputation as a progressive young farmer, was here Thursday.

Editor Green Clay Walker, of the good paper, the Lancaster Record, was over for the fair Thursday. Mr. Walker has been in very poor health but is now improving satisfactorily. His many Lincoln friends will be glad to know.

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your enemy and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of legions of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been blatantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents, and it has been truthfully said that more druggists use it personally in their families than any other laxative.

J. T. O'Mary, of Livingston, one of the most popular railroaders on this division of the L. & N. was here for the fair.

Of course Dick Hampton got in from Lebanon Junction in time to take it all in. Dick would have stopped the whole L. & N. schedule, if need be, to get back home for the gala event.

Jack Beazley, Will Wearen, John Menefee were as busy as bird dogs all the time. This is a bunch of hustlers for keeps.

Joe T. Embry, general bookkeeper in the office of Auditor Henry Bosworth at Frankfort, couldn't stay away from the Stanford fair, and got in Wednesday night.

Col. Gill Cowan, of Hustonville, as usual was on hand, and was pressed into service as a judge.

There are few better judges of horse flesh than this popular West Ender. Grover C. Anderson, of Mt. Sterling, who had the good sense to come to Lincoln for his bride, was here with her and took in the fair.

Mr. Anderson, who knows a good horse all over, was used to great advantage as a judge.

Jim Woods is making an ideal president, and the members of the lodge are congratulating themselves that they put him in the place. As for the secretaryship, of course no one could beat Jim Cummins.

Homer Wray, although transplanted to Danville, still keeps his membership in Diadem Lodge, and is here for the whole three days of the fair. He is proving himself mighty useful to have around, too.

Clay Coleman, who bought the Porter Sandidge farm in the West, was on hand and is taking much interest in Lincoln county affairs. He is a splendid young citizen, and is the kind to men to have in a community.

The midway attractions are proving big drawing cards. All of the shows are clean and good. The merry-go-around, of course has the call for the youngsters.

Capt. T. B. Robinson, of Garrard was here with his great walking mare, and while she didn't get a ribbon, he declared that it didn't leave any sore spots on him. "A." Hundley's great little walking mare got the blue while Carroli Bailey's splendid big plantation horse took the red.

MERCER COURT HOUSE

Cornerstone For New Building Laid By The Masons.

Harrodsburg, Ky., Aug. 21--The ceremonies in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of the Mercer county courthouse marked this as a red letter day in the history of the county. There were a number of prominent Kentuckians present, among the number, Gov. James B. McCreary and ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham.

The Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist Episcopal church, presided as chairman. The Rev. W. H. Smith, of the Christian church, opened the services with a prayer, and the Rev. Dr. J. G. Hunter, of the First Presbyterian church, delivered the invocation. The Hon. Dave Jackson, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky F. and A. M. laid the cornerstone, assisted by officers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

The copper box deposited within the cornerstone contained a copy of this week's Harrodsburg Herald and Leader, a short history of Masonry in Kentucky since 1800, a short sketch of Warren Lodge, 53, and Mercer Lodge, 777, F and A. M., a sketch of Montgomery Lodge, 18 I. O. O. F., a list of present members of the bar, a list of the churches and pastors, schools, fraternities, societies and photographs of the old courthouse, fraternity building, public library, Mr. Jackson and John B. Mann, who is present Master of Mercer Lodge, 777.

Judge John W. Hughes delivered an address on "Mercer County and its Progress," followed by a song composed for the occasion by Henry Cleveland Wood.

Homer Wray Not In

Saddle This Year
Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Wray and family, of Danville, came over Tuesday so as to be here in plenty of time for the opening of the fair. There is no more enthusiastic K. P. in the state than Homer Wray and few finer judges of horseflesh. Mr. Wray rode Walter O. Walker's splendid string of horses for several years, but his duties as manager of the telephone exchange at Danville keep him so busy he has not time to devote to the equines any longer. He is making good at Danville, and the people there are very much gratified with the service he is giving them, his many friends will be glad to know.

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement
Brought Great Happiness
I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am Yours respectfully,
W. H. McAFEE,

There is real paint and also some stuff mixed with cheapening materials that is not worthy of the name. If you have had experience with the latter kind you don't want another. If you haven't take our advice and don't experiment. Buy our real paints and save yourself disappointment and money as well.

NO ONE STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

The celebrated Dr. Abernethy of London was firmly of the opinion that disorders of the stomach were the most prolific source of human ailments in general. A recent medical writer says: "every feeling, emotion and affection reports at the stomach (through the system of nerves) and the stomach is affected accordingly. It is the vital center of the body." His conclusion, "so we may be said to live (through) the stomach." He goes on to show that the stomach is the vital center of the body. For weak stomachs and the consequent indigestion or dyspepsia, and the multitude of various diseases which result therefrom, no medicine can be better suited as a curative agent than

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"Several months ago I suffered from a severe pain right under the breastbone," writes Mrs. G. M. MURREN, of Corona, Calif. "I had suffered from it, off and on, for several years. I also suffered from heart-burn, did not know what was the matter with me. I tried several medicines but they did me no good. Finally, I was told it was my liver. I did not dare to eat as it made me worse. Whenever I swallowed anything it seemed that I would faint—it hurt so. I grew very thin and weak from not eating. Was told to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took five bottles of it, and could feel myself getting better from the first dose. I could eat a little without pain and grow strong fast. Today I am strong and well and can do a big day's work with ease. Can eat everything and have put on flesh wonderfully. I will say to all sufferers write to Dr. Pierce. He has my undying gratitude."

The Man Behind the Gun at Brodhead

SECRETARY A. M. HIATT

Everybody's talking about the great success of the Brodhead fair this year. The above is a fair likeness of Secretary A. M. Hiatt, who probably had more to do with making it a big winner than any other one man.

Mr. Hiatt is one of the young men who are doing things in Kentucky in the present day. He taught for two years in the common schools of Rockcastle, after completing his education, then went to Louisville and took a business course, and after graduating was associated three years with the Stratton-Terstege Hardware Co. He returned to Rockcastle in 1907 to accept the place of Assistant Cashier of the Citizens Bank of Brodhead, and in 1910 was elected cashier to succeed J. W. Hutcheson. He is proving one of the best bank men ever known in Kentucky, and takes a leading part in every public enterprise. He is married, having wedded Miss Lillie Smith, daughter of R. L. Smith, a prominent farmer of Hiatt.

Secretary Hiatt wants the 1. J. to thank the Lincoln county people for their patronage and good will and invites them all back again next year.

REMINGTON-UMC
AUTOLOADING RIFLE
All the advantages of the big game arm with none of its discomforts or annoyances—
The recoil does the work of reloading and ejecting instead of pounding your shoulder. Five shots—just pull and release the trigger. Your action stays open and warns you when it's time to shove in a fresh clip. You can never get in a tight place—the gun never clogs. Each shot strikes a one ton blow.
Simple action—simple take-down.
Send for a motion picture booklet explaining the Remington-UMC Autoloading Rifle's big points.
